Thank you -- I am relieved to hear! Have a great weekend (it's freezing in western Canada!),

I spoke to Mary and Sonnick. Mary wants us to move forward based on our earlier decision to continue doing business with JE. Not a big deal with Catherine, she just wasn't aware of the existing LC.

Let's speak next week.

Regards

Chris

Let's catch up next week. I did not hear back from Sonnick or Mary. I did know that we had that existing LOC. Why would Catherine be surprised that we had credit exposure to him?

Mary - we are moving forward on this but we will need this to be cash secured (which I explained to Rich Kahn).

Not sure if you knew this but we do still have an existing $1MM LC that we issued a few years ago that is secured by the Tween stock (formerly TOO). That was the LC supporting the Modelling Agency's loan to Mellon.

When I explained that to Catherine Keating she was surprised to learn that we had any existing credit exposure to Jeffery.

Let me know if you would like to discuss when you are back next week.

Regards,

Chris

I need your guidance on the below, please. My current understanding is that we are business as usual with Epstein's office and thus this small Letter of Credit should be approved. However, I know Sonnick and the credit team are concerned so please advise how we should proceed.

Thanks,

Mary

Mary - Rich Kahn from Jeffery Epstein's office would like to discuss this letter of credit. How should I handle this?

Darren:

Here is a draft of a letter of credit. You indicated that your bank might not want to have as many scheduled reduction dates as the sub-sublease provides, so I did not put the entire schedule in this draft.
