To streamline the trial of this matter and the hearing on Epstein's Revised Omnibus Motion in Limine and to reduce costs, Epstein respectfully requests that the Court take judicial notice of these court records. Under section 90.202(6), Florida Statutes, a court may take judicial notice of records of any court of this state or of any court of record of the United States or of any state, territory, or jurisdiction of the United States. A court, however, shall take judicial notice of such matters when (1) proper notice is given to the adverse party, and (2) the court is furnished with sufficient information to enable it to take judicial notice of the matter. Florida Evidence Code § 90.203.

Epstein has provided notice to Defendant/Counter-Plaintiff and he has provided the Court with sufficient information herein and in his Appendix of Documents in Support of his Revised Omnibus Motion in Limine, to take judicial notice of these court records. Accordingly, Epstein respectfully requests judicial notice of the court records identified above and included in his Appendix.
