I appreciate you informing me, please let me check to see if that is indeed correct. And please do not publish any names that may have inadvertently been left unredacted. I will get back to you. Thanks.

Dear [REDACTED]

I hope you are well. I'm writing from the British Telegraph newspaper. I just had one question in the case of Ghislaine Maxwell.

The judge has allowed the witnesses and victims to remain anonymous through the trial, should they so choose. I noticed in a recent filing that the defence left the name of one of the government's proposed witnesses unredacted. As this is now public, would we be allowed to report it?

For your information, it's contained in Document #453 of the United States vs. Maxwell.

Thank you very much for your time,

Josie Ensor
